SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST
Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School No. 7 for Nov. 6, 1971. Subject: The Home-Primary Center of Education Lesson Scripture Text: "And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." Thess. 5:23 - No discussion of education could be fruitful if we failed to think first of its primary objective, The knowledge of God and Christ is the final reason of education. "Higher than the highest human thought can reach is Gods ideal for His children, Godliness - God likeness is the goal to be reached." - Education, p. 18. There need be no limit to our ambition in the matter of education, so long as it is tempered by this supreme objective. "The home and school have no more important function than inspiring the youth to develop every talent and ability to its highest level that we may be used in the service of God."

The learning has to be a personal experience. Parents who take their teaching responsibilities serviously will remember that teaching is both voluntary and involuntary. The child learns from example as well as precept, be it the mother or father in the home, or the teacher in the school.

Lesson Outline - I. Home, the Foundation for Education Luke 1:80. 2. The First School Deut. 6:6,7. 3. Educating the Whole Person 1 Thess. 5:23 4. Importance of a Trade, 2 Kings 6:1,2. 5. Make Scripture Basic, Prov. 2:1-5 6. God's Second Book, Isa. 40:28-31.

Speaking of John the Baptist Luke has this to say in Luke 1:80 "And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Isreal." The parents of John lived in the country where in His wisdom, the Lord planned that John would receive his education, the home was his school, and the vastness of the desert his opportunity to become acquainted with God. To find out what advice Paul gave to parents with respect to their children (Read Eph. 6:4) Moses the servant of God said in Deut. 6:4-7 "Hear O Isreal, the Lord our God is one Lord; and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart and with all thy soul, and with all thy might, and these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart." Verse 7 says "And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children (Read whole chapter) The best way to find the complete sanctification for which Paul prayed is through the learning process that must begin in early life . . ." How many dishonor Christ and misrepresent His character in the home circle? How many do not manifest patience, forbearance, forgiveness and true love? - "It (labor) is still a source of happiness and development. The youth should be led to see the true dignity of labor . . . Action prevades the whole creation, and in order to fulfill our mission we, too, must be active." Education, p. 214. The knowledge of God and Jesus Christ expressed in character is an exaltation above everything else that is esteemed on earth or in heaven, It is the very highest education. It is the key that opens the portals of the heavenly city . . . The Ministry of Healing. p. 457. (Read God's Second Book - Isa. 40;28-31.) Sabbath School 10 a.m.
